

lovely except for a certain blot in the far ground of some -

Hannah! how my breath of beam does boom up!

I have finished reading
T. G. & now Sally is at it.

I don't begin to tell you the queer questions the reading of it has given me. It seems to me that her lack of memory concerning so much of her own history might suggest an mentality about her statements concerning others - It must

Hall Mills - 105.50 - correspondence - 1927.9.12 - FH-TPF
Cragmoor, N.Y.

September 12th 1927

Dear Jim —

This is a glorious winter morning & I am trying to warm up before we start on a drive to Arkshokan.
The mountains are so clear & blue & I feel that I could skip from peak to peak just with the lightness of the air.

Thank you so much for the pictures. I think they are

Hall Mills - 105.51 - corresp. Providence - 1927.9.12 - F.H.-TP4 have been bring in the extreme to listen to it all. I will send the books back to you from here & I thank you for sending them.

Of course I have been eagerly reading the papers for news of "Old Glory". Really if we had wanted to remove a certain we could it has chosen a more tactful method - do you suppose they will suggest that we had a hand in it?

I am wondering, over so far as, just what effect it will have.

I received a clipping, in case you missed this valuable piece of news (?)

I had a letter from you on J.A. the other day - You certainly are bringing the boys up to the point & they do without most annoying letters.

I am going home on Wednesday. I just ended at a stand being away & going to a party that night.

Have had a truly interesting & as you client, have heard many nice things.
I will probably go away next week for a few days.

Fondly yours Hall